

Call for Papers

1st Junior Workshop on Economics of Latin America

10–11 July 2025
Berlin, Germany

Submissions are open to a 2-day workshop on Economics of Latin America, specifically designed for junior scholars. The workshop is hosted by the Institute for Latin American Studies (LAI) at the Freie Universität Berlin.

PhD students and Postdoctoral researchers within two years of their PhD completion are invited to submit full paper drafts by February 28, 2025.

We welcome submissions on all areas of economics with a clear regional focus on Latin America. Papers that intersect with development economics are especially encouraged.

The workshop aims to provide a unique opportunity to connect early-career researchers working on Latin American economics in a constructive and collaborative atmosphere.

Submission: Please send your full paper draft to: a.principato@fu-berlin.de
